

REDDING AND SHAGG POND

H. Rowe has returned from West Paris, where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Richardson. Mrs. Frank Perkins of Andover is at George Redding's a few days last week.

Nearly everyone in the place attended a meeting at East Sumner, Monday, Feb. 27, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. B. B. Bisbee of New York is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bisbee, for a few weeks.

Herbert Redding, W. V. Redding and Helen Rowe of Newfield were callers in the place, Sunday.

Herbert Stanley has been visiting at Olga Varney's and Welsford Lapham's a few days.

Kenneth Cole went to Castine last Wednesday and returned, Sunday.

E. L. Farrar spent the week end with his daughter, Mrs. Olga Varney.

George Childs of Milton was a recent caller at John Redding's.

Spending callers, Ed. Cole's were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Martin, West Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cole, and Kenneth Cole, East Sumner.

John Andrews, who works at West Paris, is at home for a few days this week.

George Andrews and John Redding made a business trip to Rumford one day last week.

WELCHVILLE

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Kennedy were glad to hear from her and that she was none the worse for going from home here to New York, where Joseph Kennedy's, Mechanic Falls, is now.

She has been several weeks and though able to get up, more or less, she is still unable to get to her nephew's, while she remained in New York.

Leander Wardwell and wife have closed their home, "The Little Red House" at the foot of the hill and are away for several weeks.

Walter Scribner, the poultry dealer, who has been ill and unable to attend to his business, is able to be out and attending to his duties. Seems good to see him back again.

Dennis Dorsey, Joseph Hunting and Edwin Appleton attended the N. E. M. A. in Lewiston, the 2nd.

Judith Cummings and wife of West Paris were callers on her mother, Flora Cummings, at Mr. Dorsey's, Thursday, so were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waterhouse, Lewiston, and Wallace Noyes, West Paris.

Clayton Fritz of the U. S. A. spent the week end here with his family.

Shoupsons, wreckers and creaking noises with the howling of the wind, make music for those not enjoying the sounds coming in over the radio. What a market the Japan-China war kicks up!

And depression is forgotten, on an evening, in household, at home, when every member in the household leans over the table intent in seeing the right place for the right piece. Many a pleasant evening is passed, as this one and another, one by one, and all are happy.

Evening is passed, as this one and another, one by one, and all are happy. Evenings had, one being on Flora Cummings, she thinking she had picked a piece for a candle and, to a moon.

Old man wind did not slight Welchville in his spring, rolling snow, tells all about it. Such a sight is it, that no need to go to Fikes' Hill or Lake Umbagog to see a sight, we have snow balls of our own.

Just hearing the church bells ringing, reminds me that the parish or church members met at Mrs. Alice Wilson's, to discuss and see about having an addition to the church building.

Mr. Scribner took his son-in-law, Jack Leavitt, to Augusta, to see his mother, who is ill.

OXFORD-FORE STREET

Flora Cummings, who has been a shut-in since leaving the hospital, February 14, going to the home of her friend, Maud Dorey of Welchville was pleased to receive a call from her sister, Mrs. Christina Twitchell, March 1, and the next day from her son and wife, of West Paris, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cummings. She has had other callers, that helped make the days pass pleasantly.

Her pastor, Miss Glover of Oxford, Mrs. Alanson Cummings and daughter of West Paris, At. Twitchell of Oxford Fore Street, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Waterson, and daughter, Elizabeth of West Paris, Mervin Stroh of East Oxford, Lloyd Waterhouse and Mrs. Wallace Noyes of West Paris, Alice Truett of Pigeon Hill.

The neighbors in Welchville have been ever so thoughtful of Mrs. Cummings, bringing her delicacies in line of food and fruit, blossoms from their individual plants, big puzzles and now and then a card calling at a time to have a game of cards. The young mother is even bringing her laughing, creaking, clapping babies of a few months for her to enjoy a few minutes. No wonder Mrs. Cummings is loath to leave such pleasant surroundings, though she plans to, March 12, going to West Paris to her sons, till she can return to her home here.

HARRISON

The Ladies' Aid of Calvary Community church met at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Greene, hostess, assisted by Mrs. Elton Ingalls. A most delightful day was passed by about thirty of the ladies, who enjoyed their work and chattering, and a delicious dinner was served with numerous goodies from oyster stew to strawberry shortcake and Lillian pudding. These all day events are proving very attractive to all and have been enjoyed at Mrs. Andrew Young's and Miss Genie Burnham's. The next one will be at Mrs. Frank Bennett's home on Main Street, on Tuesday, the 21.

The Ladies of Woodlawn Rebekah Lodge served dinner at Woodlawn Hall town meeting day.

After the regular meeting of Lakeside Grange, Saturday evening, a most interesting talk, "Meeting the Problem of Living House Losses" was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maxwell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born March 6, named Derwood Harr.

Mrs. Mary Gray returned Sunday from St. Barnabas hospital in Portland where she has been for treatment. She is at her apartment in Jackson House with Mrs. Ella Daves caring for her.

Dr. Percy Stearns and Phil Marquardt held a dance at Woodlawn Hall Saturday evening with a good crowd present and excellent music. These dances will be continued. The ladies of Woodlawn Rebekah Lodge served refreshments. The orchestra will continue these dances in the future. They consist of Ross Catland, piano; Arnold Merrill, violin; Mrs. Erwin Warl, trumpet; and Harry E. Smith, drums.

Mrs. C. D. Tarbox recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Erland Noyes of South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buck were in town last week. Mr. Buck attended to business at the Farmers' Union and Mrs. Buck attended to the care of Mrs. M. H. Pitts for the day.

Mrs. Samuel Lee Pitts and her sister, Mrs. Wallace Lovell of North Bridgton entertained the Carita Club at the home of Mrs. Pitts, Monday evening. Work was done and sewing accomplished for children in this vicinity. Percele dresses and other sewing is to be done for needy children during the spring meetings.

Grand Night was observed at Woodlawn Rebekah Lodge at the regular meeting Thursday evening. Mrs. Clifford Denison was in charge of the program and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. P. P. Freeman and Mrs. E. P. Stearns.

BRIDGTON

Frank Gordon passed away Feb. 24 at his home on Main Street. He had not been feeling well for some time and for the past few weeks he has been ill with kidney and heart trouble. Mr. Gordon was born at Toll Bridge, Fryeburg, 74 years ago last August and was the son of James and Betsey Frye Gordon of that town. Several years ago he came to Bridgton and opened a restaurant and confectionery store with the assistance of his brother, Mr. H. A. Abbott, formerly of Fryeburg. They have continued to run the store, making several improvements, ever since.

All will miss Frank as he was always jolly and pleasant to meet and was a great help to a little chat with him.

There were two brothers, John Perham and Henry, also a sister, Helen McDaniel, who died several years ago. One brother, Stearns, Barnard, lived in South Paris, who came here to the services. There are also two nieces living. The funeral services were held at his home, Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. F. Doughty officiating. Burial was at Toll Bridge cemetery, Fryeburg.

Funeral services for Stuart, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, died at St. Paul's Hospital, February 25, at the result of pneumonia, following an operation for appendicitis, were held at the South Bridgton Congregational Church, Sunday morning, Feb. 26, at 10 o'clock. The Rev. H. A. Booth of the Congregational Church of Fryeburg officiated. There were many beautiful flowers. Burial was at the South Bridgton cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Edith had the misfortune to fall down a few steps of the stairs at the Pondicherry mill, hurting his back badly. He has been confined to his home on Portland Street.

William Weeman entertained her whist club Saturday evening, Feb. 25. Nice refreshments were served and a jolly time for all.

Lottie Morrison entertained Betty May and a group of friends at an evening party, in honor of her grand niece, Dorothy Briggs, of Sweden, who spent a week with her aunt. After supper, the four played whist. Dot never had played whist before, but played other games at cards. We found her right smart at whist, she isn't twice her age, old until next June. Real old fashioned corn balls were passed around. Aunt Lottie was as young as the girls, as usual, with her funny remarks.

UNCLE ZEKE AND HULDA

Visit The Stores

Wednesday was a bad day for shopping. Rain, snow, slush and ice should suggest staying home, but Hulda had planned during the week to visit Norway village. Nothing would do but we must dress for the occasion and venture out. Wife Hulda is like most every other woman, when she says "go" and the jaw is set, there is nothing else but obey. Makes me think of the hee food slogan, "Lay or Bust." In her case, it is "Go or Bust."

I harnessed the family nag into the pump, (halloo!) we don't own a car) and drove to the village. She read last week's Advertiser (not a borrowed copy) hence was all set for a trading jubilee in spite of the bank holiday.

She led the way and our first call was at the Z. L. Merchant store and right up to the counter where a stock of piece goods should gladden the heart of every economical woman. Some change from old days for the best percales marked at a yard. Some big stores ask 15c for the same thing. Hulda called my attention to the 10c kind that seemed excellent trades. Over the way there were new spring dresses, fancy and plain, right up to date colors and shades. Was surprised to see so many ready-to-wear things. Never before realized that women had it so easy picking the nifty and becoming regalia for kitchen, parlor or party. The place is a real dry goods store, with Zeb at your service.

Believing my turn to pick a store, I decided to call again on Fred Pike at the L. F. Pike Co. We critically inspected a complete line of new suits for men. If you want to appear stylish, buy in blues, grays or browns, said the proprietor. A line of all wool worsteds, extra trousers, coat with hatched lapels and two buttons looked mighty smart for $19.50 per suit. Sakes alive, what a price drop from World War days. Hulda thought custom made clothes might fit our needs, so we were shown the Taylors which have a price range of $17 to $35. Customers are not expected to pay unless they are satisfied as to quality and fit. As one old chap once said, "You are to be the judge as to quality."

Paddling up Main Street, we
